Amendment of the Mysore Negotiable Instruments Regulation.

13) It is proposed to amend the Mysore Negotiable Instruments Regulation, VII of 1917, so as to bring it into conformity with the law as in force in British India. Two amendments have been recently made in the British Indian Act - (1) making provision for excusing delay in presentment for acceptance or payment, when the delay is caused by circumstances beyond the control of the holder and (2) extending the time limit within which bills are to be accepted after presentment, from 24to 48 hours. These amendements are good and afford great convenience, in the one case to the drawees and in the other to the drawers of pro-notes.

14) The Draft Bill to amend the Regulation has been agreed to by the Dewan and the Members of Council.

15) The gracious sanction of His Highness is solicited for placing the Bill before the Legislative Council.

NOTIFICATION.

No. 462—L. C., dated 18th April 1922.

Under Rule 31 of the Rules for the conduct of business of the Mysore Legislative Council, the accompanying Bill further to amend the Negotiable Instruments Regulation, 1917, is published for general information with the statement of objects and reasons.

By Order,

C. ABDUL GHANI,
Secretary,
Mysore Legislative Council.

BILL FURTHER TO AMEND THE NEGOTIABLE INSTRUMENTS REGULATION, 1917.

Whereas it is expedient further to amend the Negotiable Instruments Regulation, 1917; His Highness the Maharaja is pleased to enact as follows:—

Amendment of Sections 63 and 83.

1. In Sections 63 and 83 of the Regulation, for the word 'twenty-four' the word 'forty-eight' shall be substituted.

Insertion of a new Section 75A.

2. After Section 75 of the Regulation, the following Section shall be inserted, namely:—

Excuse for delay in presentment for acceptance or payments.

"75 A. Delay in presentment for acceptance or payment is excused if the delay is caused by circumstances beyond the control of the holder, and not imputable to his default, misconduct or negligence. When the cause of delay ceases to operate, presentment must be made within a reasonable time."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The British Indian Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881, has been amended by Acts XXV of 1920 and XII of 1921 providing for excusing delay in making presentment for acceptance or payment when the delay is caused by circumstances beyond the control of the holder and extending the time limit within which bills are to be accepted after presentment, to forty-eight hours on the ground that the present time limit of twenty-four hours is too short and causes considerable inconvenience and hardship.

It is considered desirable to make similar provisions in our Regulation and hence the draft Bill.
